BRAIN WORK is undoubtedly far more exhausting than bodily labour. Great thinkers, and persons burdened with cares, have the most need of those sustaining and restorative agents so mercifully supplied in the vegetable world, which, wisely used, go far to support the powers of nature. Dr. T. LAUDER BRUNTON says in the Contemporary Review—"The late Lord DERBY, when translating Homer, was accustomed to eat BRANDIED CHERRIES;" and Dr. ALBERT J. BERNAYS says:—"If I come home after any worry I shall never hesitate to set myself right by taking my favorite and perfect remedy, five or six Brandied Cherries. In three or four minutes I find myself wonderfully soothed and quieted, and I have never experienced any ill effects." The essence and virtue of the Morella Cherry in a concentrated form, combined with the finest Cognac, is now to be found in that well-known and delicious Liqueur, "GRANT'S MORELLA CHERRY BRANDY," which, taken alone or with water, produces in a greatly increased degree all those good effects above described. The Liqueur may be procured through any Wine Merchant, at all Bars and Restaurants, and of the Manufacturer, THOMAS GRANT, Distiller, Maidstone.

THE ZULU WAR.

MY COMMAND in SOUTH AFRICA, 1874—1878. Comprising Experiences of Travel in the Colonies of South Africa and the Independent States. By General Sir ARTHUR THURLOW CUNYNGHAME, G.C.B., then Lieutenant-Governor and Commander of the Forces in South Africa. 8vo, with Maps, 12*s.* 6*d.* [Second Thousand.

The Times says:—"It is a volume of great interest.....Full of incidents which vividly illustrate the condition of the colonies and the character and habits of the natives.....It contains valuable illustrations of Cape warfare, and at the present moment it cannot fail to command widespread attention."

"The public are under an obligation to the author and his publishers for the timeous appearance of the volume, the contents of which, interesting at any time, are of special value at the present moment."—Scotsman.

"It is only necessary to glance at the solid volume just published to perceive that this work has nothing in common with the cloud of publications, hastily compiled and hurriedly put forth, which always follow upon any sudden craving in the public mind for information on a special topic."—Daily News.

BISMARCK in the FRANCO-GERMAN WAR. An Authorised Translation, from the German of Dr. MORITZ BUSCH. Second Thousand, 2 vols. crown 8vo, cloth extra, 18*s.*

The Athenaeum says:—"Their importance to historical students, and to all who care for an insight into the inner complications of one of the most marvellous periods of modern history, and for a comprehension of the wonderful man figuring in the centre of it, is of the greatest. Nobody can understand the political history of the Franco-German War, nor the man Bismarck, its chief maker, who has not read the diary of the Reichskanzler's Boswell."

"The book is, on the whole, one of the most amusing and interesting that has appeared for a long time, and deserves to be read by every person who wishes to become acquainted with the true nature of the great German Chancellor." Globe.

"The memoir is so continuously attractive that it would be impossible to crowd a tithe of its anecdotes and conversations into the longest review....A singularly attractive work, not a page of it should be missed."—Manchester Examiner.

"This is a charming volume.....Clearly written in plain English, and unpretending in its style, there is no doubt that this volume by the accomplished naturalist to the Expedition will always be a book of reference. The general reader will find some difficulty in putting the book down, for it is hard to leave off reading its interesting natural-history remarks and anecdotes."—Academy.

"The present brilliant translation of the 'Odyssey' is another most gratifying proof of the taste and soundness of English scholarship.....The brilliant and exact scholarship of Mr. Butcher is happily combined with Mr. Lang's wide knowledge of the early poetry of different peoples. The translation is good for all readers.....It preserves to a surprising degree the poetry and charm of the original." Saturday Review.

"Messrs. Butcher and Lang have made an important addition to the list [of excellent prose translations], and their translation will take rank beside the 'Republic' of Messrs. Davies and Vaughan, and the smaller masterpieces of Tacitus, Englished some time ago by Messrs. Church and Brodribb.....The volume must be pronounced to be thoroughly creditable to English scholarship and English letters, as well as likely to be of great practical service to a large and increasing number of persons."—Examiner.
